

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK— TINA COUMBE

ISSUE #33 THURSDAY 31ST OCTOBER 2019

Hi Everyone,

Thank you to everyone that volunteered at our Halloween disco last week. It was a fantastic night and the costumes all looked amazing :) Just a reminder as the weather gets warmer, to please apply sunscreen on your children in the morning and aerogard as the mosquitoes are back and in fine form.

Please remember that Tuesday is a public holiday and there will be no school.

We are looking forward to the Science Fair tomorrow in Mount Martha. I know our students will do us proud.

Have a great weekend. Tina xxx

Student Work

What am I?

I come in different colors
Or maybe a different shade
I love drinking water
But sit in the sun all day

Sometimes I am edible
Sometimes I am not
Sometimes I like the cold
Sometimes I like the hot

After a period of time
I will turn brown
I can be found
All around town

I love the dirt
I live there
So come find me
I'll be buried you know where

Who Am I?

A Poem by Liam Ricard

Always, my prey, is what I consume,
For I occur in the hours past noon.
With solar energy, I spell their doom,
And for children, I spell their gloom.

Forever, my nemesis will always be day,
Though my creations, on the ground they lay.
I am sometimes scary, so please dismay,
But I am also the embodiment of Monday.

I will never stop being a fear,
For my minions always creep near.
You turn around, "What was that?" I hear,
And I am a shadow of myself, no longer here.

I HATE
