

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK – TINA COUMBE

ISSUE #6 THURSDAY 11TH OF MARCH 2021

Hi everyone,

Wow! It's been a short but busy week. It has been wonderful seeing how settled the students are and how well they are working.

This weeks staff professional learning has been about student learning goals and helping students to set their own goals. This is called "student agency" which means students have active input and ownership into their learning. Your child will be setting literacy and numeracy goals every five weeks and they will be sharing these with you at their student lead interviews next term. Please ask your child what their goals are as an important part of this is being able to share them.

As most of you know, I'm heading off to hopefully get my knee fixed. The school is in the very capable hands of the staff, Mr Weyne and Mrs Simpson will be up in the office if you need anything. I can't wait to see you all soon and hopefully without crutches 😊😊😊

ADHD--Not Just Naughty

One mum's roadmap through the early challenges of Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder.

ADHD--Not Just Naughty is an uplifting guide for parents and care-givers of children diagnosed with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder. (ADHD) The main symptoms are hyperactivity, impulsivity and inattention.

Problem issues may include lack of focus, unfinished tasks, constantly interrupting, difficulty sitting still, trouble waiting their turn, and fidgeting. Children are often unfairly labelled as 'just naughty'.

This book offers practical parenting strategies, intertwined with real-life incidents, with a dash of humour thrown in. Issues such as self-esteem, social skills, schooling, discipline and controlling anger are explored, with a strong focus on emotional well-being of both parent and child.

It also comes with a message of hope, that children with ADHD are not just naughty and that diagnosis of ADHD can be a new beginning to a better relationship.

This book is written by a beautiful local author whose children attended Crib Point Primary School.

It is available from the office for $25.00 (CASH ONLY)
